

English Newsletter

In the north of New Zealand, the National State of Emergency has been declared because the cyclone Gabrielle has destroyed many homes.

Russia has accused the American journalist Evan Gershkovich of being a spy while he worked the Wall Street Journal.

31st March

The Pope is expected to leave hospital on Saturday and come back to his residence at Santa Marta in Vatican. He went to hospital on Wednesday because of breathing difficulties.

Africa is less secure and democratic than a decade ago especially in insecurity progress in health and education.

SEE YOU NEXT WEEK !!!!!

Rosa-May, Maiwenn, Valentin, Emy, Jule-Marin, Raphael ,
Evelyn, Emy and Jaylee